WASHINGTON, May 7,-The senate today voted and fixed the duty on lead as contained in the lead and ore amendment at 11/2 cents a pound. the same rate provided by the Dingley law. Pifty-thre senators were present, including all the Republicans present, and Senators Hughes of Colorado and McEnery of Louisiana, both Democrats, voted for the duty. Nine-ren Democrats voted against it. Senator Clapp of Minnesota spoke at length in favor of lowering tariff duties. Owen of Oklahoma, upheld the constitutionality of the income tax. The lead schedule was then taken up. Stone thought 11/2 cents a pound more than ought to be, even from a standpoint of a protectionist. This was also the opinion of Carter. A decided majority of the senate was in accord with members of the lead industry in declaring the rate 3 3-4 a cent rulnous. Barstow declared that the cost was no more to make pig

Borah, Smoot, Sutherland and others, contending that the labor and cost of producing lead was enough greater than abroad to justify the dif-ferential of five-eighths proposed by e committe on finance. LaFollette read from a newsparer

a statement of an agreement among the lead interests of the world by which they assured harmonious ac-tion in fiving prices. The statement also declared that the Gugenheims and other lead producers were included in the combination. the combination.

In a speech Chapp declared that the gromise of the Republican party that he tariff be revised downward, and that this promise was made in response to a positive demand.

The Republican members of the senate finance committee were visited today by a delegation of hat manufacturers and wholesale dealers repre-senting twenty-eight states. Hat manufacturers were given an increase over the Dingley bill rates in the house bill, but the duties were scaled down by the senate committee, a quarter below the Dingley rates. The manu-facturers assert that they will be driven out of business if these rates are adopted. They will call upon the president tomorrow.
